

5th National Social Work Continuing Professional Development Conference: Full Programme
Institute of Psychiatry, King's College London, 4th July 2011

Time	Session title	Venue
9.00 am	Registration and refreshments	Seminar Rooms 1 & 2
9.45 am	Introduction and welcome Professor Graham Thornicroft , Professor of Community Psychiatry and Head of Health Service & Population Research Department, Institute of Psychiatry	Wolfson Lecture Theatre
10.00am	Plenary: Safeguarding Vulnerable Children and Adults Chair: Martin Webber , Institute of Psychiatry Stephen Scott Professor of Child Health and Behaviour, Institute of Psychiatry Jim Campbell Senior Lecturer in Social Work, Queens University Belfast Jill Manthorpe Professor of Social Work, King's College London	Wolfson Lecture Theatre
		How can social workers reduce child abuse? Safeguarding the rights of clients with mental health needs Will safeguarding be all that's left for social workers in adult services?
11.20am	Refreshments and poster display	Seminar Rooms 1 & 2
11.45am	Parallel Workshops
W1	Keeping the child in focus: children's and young people's views of child protection Jeanette Cossar, Marian Brandon & Peter Jordan (University of East Anglia)
W2	Identifying and overcoming the obstacles to establishing empathic communication when working with vulnerable children or adults Robert Murphy (London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham)
W3	Fathers and child protection Sean Haresnape (Family Rights Group) & Jonathan Scourfield (Cardiff University)
W4	Outcomes of the West London Alliance Social Work Pilot Project Rachel Dasler (London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham) & Rosalind Searle (Open University)
W5	Decision making and dilemmas for social workers working in child and family services Teresa Bertotti (University of Milano Bicocca, Milan)
W6	Safeguarding vulnerable adults: dilemmas arising from religious and cultural beliefs Sheila Furness (University of Bradford)
W7	Reducing sexual vulnerability of adults with learning disabilities Andrea Hollomotz (Manchester Metropolitan University)
W8	Learning from practice: beyond serious case reviews Sheila Fish & Hannah Roscoe (Social Care Institute for Excellence)

Time	Session title	Venue
1.00 pm	Lunch and poster display	Seminar Rooms 1 & 2
1.30 pm	Lunchtime DVD: Prospective visitors Child Contact Information DVD Robert McLean & Anne Warwick (Ashworth Hospital)	Wolfson Lecture Theatre
2.00 pm	Parallel Workshops
W9	Family support and child well-being - exploring practice Mary Smith, Sarah Humphreys (Havering College) & Sue West (Havering Borough)
W10	Developing effective social work relationships with young children Karen Winter (Queens University Belfast)
W11	Is it abuse or 'just' poor practice? Best practice in residential care and supported living services for adults with learning disabilities Rachel Fyson & Anne Patterson (University of Nottingham)
W12	Supporting effective transitions in mental health services for young people Rebecca Goldman & Mary Sainsbury (Social Care Institute for Excellence)
W13	Safeguarding children through reflective supervision - thinking about the unthinkable Malcolm Ward (Southwark Safeguarding Children Board)
W14	Still an 'invisible trade': examining home visits in children's safeguarding Karen Broadhurst (Lancaster University), Christopher Hall (Durham University) & Nataleigh Strasburg (London Borough of Camden)
W15	Protecting adults in Scotland Ailsa Stewart, Gillian MacIntyre (University of Strathclyde), Pearse McCusker (Glasgow Caledonian University) & Jackie Jackson (Scottish Social Services Council)
W16	Real world strategies for promoting innovative practice: protecting and supporting children exposed to domestic violence Sue Elmer (Leeds Trinity University College)
3.15 pm	Refreshments	Seminar Rooms 1 & 2
3.40 pm	Plenary discussion: The Munro Review of Child Protection Chair: James Blewett, Making Research Count Professor Eileen Munro, London School of Economics	Wolfson Lecture Theatre
4.45 pm	Close

The Munro Review of Child Protection